AMHS cancels Chenega's Friday, northbound sailing

(JUNEAU, Alaska) – The Alaska Marine Highway System (AMHS) announced today that it has cancelled Friday's northbound sailing to Haines with a return trip to Juneau.

The vessel's captain contacted the National Weather Service for verification of expected weather conditions in Northern Lynn Canal and learned that gale force winds and high seas will prevent the fast vehicle ferry from sailing from Juneau.

Travelers can contact the AMHS Juneau Central Reservations Office at (907) 465-3941 or (800) 642-0066. Additionally, updated sailing information may be found at the AMHS website at www.ferryalaska.com.
